International Lawyers Network Welcomes New Member in New Delhi, LexCounsel

New York (December 15, 2009) – On Tuesday, the International Lawyers Network announced that LexCounsel has joined the Network as their representative for New Delhi, India. They are a corporate, commercial and litigation law firm established to provide superior quality business-oriented legal services to its clients. Since its inception in 2004, LexCounsel has been recognized as one of the leading Indian law firms in a number of practice areas by leading publications including Legal 500 and Asia Law and Practice. Each partner has more than a decade of experience handling complex legal transactions and issues in India, and has consistently been nominated as a Leading Lawyer in his/her respective area of practice, particularly in IT, telecommunications and media; venture capital and private equity; and labour and employment.

Over the years, LexCounsel has established itself as a firm providing superior quality business-oriented legal services to a broad spectrum of domestic and foreign clients, ranging from start-up companies to multinational corporations. The firm has a close network of associate offices in Mumbai, Bangalore, Kolkata, Hyderabad, Chennai and Goa. LexCounsel draws on the specialized expertise of several professionals and specialists to provide seamless complete legal business advice throughout India. LexCounsel is equipped with advanced technologies, management resources, updated library systems and other dedicated support systems to ensure timely delivery of legal services.
