ILN Member PETERKA & PARTNERS Opens Office in Moscow

New York (January 19, 2010) – On Tuesday, ILN member PETERKA & PARTNERS announced the opening of an office in Moscow. This is the fourth office of PETERKA & PARTNERS, which will be managed by David Šimek. The office will render, proactively supported by the firm's partners, complex legal services to clients doing business in Russia. Despite the economic crisis, PETERKA & PARTNERS continues to pursue its ambitious foreign market expansion strategy, with the intent to create its own regional network in Central and Eastern Europe. During its ten-year history, the firm has succeeded in these efforts in the Czech, Slovakian, Ukrainian and Bulgarian markets.

PETERKA & PARTNERS regularly represents clients in the Russian market, and the firm's managing partner, Ondrej Peterka, states that he feels the necessity of being present in the country, as their clients' demand for legal consulting services in Russia increases. The new office will open with a team of three lawyers, who will be supported in larger projects by cooperating Russian law firms. Clients and business partners may contact the new office at:
