

Vanden Eynde and partners organise the 30 November 2006, in partnership with the business school F.Ferrer the third annual meeting about sport and law. The subject of this year is the education of the young sport players. The colloquium will be co-chair by the Minister of labour for the Brussels Region and the Minister of Sport of the French community.

The key speakers included representatives of the Belgian Olympic committee, several representatives of the universities and an important representation of international sport players (www.droitdusport.be)
