

Lidings announces the start of cooperation with Tetra Pak

Lidings - the leading Russian law firm, dedicated to advising foreign companies on all aspects of Russian law announces the start of cooperation with the world famous packaging solutions company Tetra Pak.

Lidings' lawyers will represent Tetra Pak's interests in the Arbitration Court in Moscow in litigations with respect to debt collection, foreclosure on the mortgaged property, as well as bankruptcy trials.

Lidings' Partner and Litigation and Arbitration Practice Group Head Andrey Zelenin noted: «First of all I am pleased to welcome Tetra Pak among our clients. It is worth mentioning that the start of cooperation with Tetra Pak has become the result of growth of our expertise in advising foreign companies, specifically in the packaging industry. Without doubt our cooperation will be efficient for both sides».

Brief information about Tetra Pak in Russia:

Founded in 1951 in Lund, Sweden, the company works in the Russian market since the year 1959. Tetra Pak owns/operates a packaging materials factory in Russia, located in Lobnya, Moscow Oblast. It is the largest factory in Eastern Europe and Middle Asia region. At Russian food processing companies, a total of 520 Tetra Pak's liquid foods bottling production lines are being installed.