Hale Lane Lawyer Appointed as District Judge by Nevada Gov. Jim Gibbons

Elissa Cadish will serve Nevada's Eighth Judicial District Court, Department 6

[Las Vegas, Nev.] September 5, 2007— Hale Lane Law Firm is pleased to announce that Elissa Cadish has been appointed district court judge for Nevada's Eighth Judicial District, Department 6, serving Clark County.

"With 16 years of experience practicing civil litigation, Elissa has the experience to successfully serve the people of Clark County," said Tim Lukas, Managing Partner at Hale Lane Law Firm. "We have a great deal of respect for her and know that with her skills she will excel as a district judge."

Cadish has been a shareholder at the law firm of Hale Lane Peek Dennison and Howard since 2000. She was admitted to the Nevada Bar in 1991, and prior to that received her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Virginia in 1989, graduating in the top ten percent of her class.

"I will work hard to maintain the integrity of the rule of law in Clark County," said Cadish. "I will see to it that everyone is treated fairly in my court, and that my decisions are based upon law and the facts of the case."
