ILN Website Reaches over 65,000 Visitors – Newsletter reaches over 500

New York (October 15, 2008) – On Wednesday, the International Lawyers Network announced that its website was viewed by over 65,000 visitors in September 2008. Their August 2008 issue of the popular International Legal News has already been viewed by over 500 people. The articles with the greatest readership include Epstein Becker & Green's "Surprises for Publicly-Traded Multinational Employers: Complying with Section 409A of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code," Fladgate's "The Ethics of Selective Distribution of Replica Football Shirts," and Lutgen & Mc Gaw's "Hotchpotch from Luxembourg." Together, these articles were viewed more than 300 times.

The International Legal News is an electronic newsletter, published bi-annually and circulated to a select group of senior executives and general counsel at major international corporations. The articles in the newsletter are contributed exclusively by member firms of the International Lawyers Network.

As one of the largest networks of experienced attorneys in the world, the International Lawyers Network provides a platform for clients to access quality legal professionals worldwide, with the cost-effectiveness and personalized service only independent, regional law firms can provide. The International Lawyers Network is an association of over 90 high-quality, full-service and specialized law firms with over 5,000 lawyers in 64 countries on six continents. The excellence, demonstrated experience, worldwide presence, and relationships of the International Lawyers Network combine to make this Network one of the leading associations of independent law firms in the world.
