ILN Members Get Together at International Bar Association Conference

New York (October 21, 2008) – On Thursday, Richards, Cardinal, Tutzer, Zabala & Zaefferer hosted a breakfast session for ILN members at their offices in Buenos Aires, Argentina in conjunction with the International Bar Association's Annual Meeting. Members from Finland, Northern Ireland, and Peru gathered to exchange information about their respective practice areas and countries. The firms also took advantage of their meeting to share referral experiences, and used the session to deepen their relationships.

The International Lawyers Network facilitates personal relationships among lawyers in mid-sized law firms all over the world, allowing them to confidently operate in a global marketplace while retaining their independence and local expertise. As one of the largest networks of experienced attorneys in the world, the ILN provides a platform for clients to access quality legal professionals worldwide with the cost-effectiveness and personalized service only independent, regional law firms can provide. With 91 high-quality, full-service and specialized law firms and over 5,000 lawyers in 64 countries on six continents, the excellence, demonstrated experience, worldwide presence, and relationships of the International Lawyers Network combine to make this Network one of the leading associations of independent law firms in the world.
