Zamfirescu Racoți Predoiu Law Partnership announces appointment of Cătălin Predoiu as Minister of Justice

Cătălin Predoiu, founder and former Senior Partner of Zamfirescu Racoți Predoiu, was appointed Minister of Justice in December 2008 on the recommendation of the Romanian Prime Minister, this being the second mandate entrusted to Cătălin Predoiu. The appointment, effective as of December 22, 2008, is for a term of four years.

“The appointment of Cătălin Predoiu as Minister of Justice will bring a wealth of knowledge, expertise and experience that will greatly assist the reform of the Romanian legal system”, said Ioana Racoți, Managing Partner of Zamfirescu Racoți Predoiu.

During his mandate, Cătălin Predoiu’s attorney capacity will be suspended for incompatibility reasons.
