International Lawyers Network Welcomes New Member in Costa Rica, Cordero & Cordero Abogados

New York (February 2, 2009) – On Monday, the International Lawyers Network announced that Cordero & Cordero Abogados has joined the Network as their representative for Costa Rica. Cordero & Cordero Abogados is a prominent and well-respected law firm, established in San José, Costa Rica in 1940 by its founding partner Mr. Hernán Cordero-Zúñiga. Today, the firm brings together a team of high-level attorneys, paralegals and specialized staff capable of assisting domestic and international clients with their everyday legal needs.

This general practice law firm strives to serve its clients on the basis of strict ethical principles, excellence in the services it provides and a personalized interaction with all of its clients. Since 2001, Cordero & Cordero Abogados has expanded its Real Estate, Corporate and Foreign Investment practices to Liberia, Papagayo and the Tamarindo and Flamingo areas.

The International Lawyers Network facilitates personal relationships among lawyers in mid-sized law firms all over the world, allowing them to confidently operate in a global marketplace while retaining their independence and local expertise. As one of the largest networks of experienced attorneys in the world, the ILN provides a platform for clients to access quality legal professionals worldwide with the cost-effectiveness and personalized service only independent, regional law firms can provide. With 91 high-quality, full-service and specialized law firms and over 5,000 lawyers in 66 countries on six continents, the excellence, demonstrated experience, worldwide presence, and relationships of the International Lawyers Network combine to make this Network one of the leading associations of independent law firms in the world. The International Lawyers Network – where lawyers become friends.
