

Statement of Purpose for the International Lawyers Network

The International Lawyers Network is an association of independent law firms that focuses on the following goals:

- Providing its members with the ability and means to better serve their clients' legal needs and business interests around the world in an increasingly global economy.
- Facilitating the relationships that afford our members an open exchange of information, expertise and experience to enhance the quality of legal services that our members offer to their clients.
- Assisting the membership with the continual development and improvement of their professionalism through the exchange of expertise, business opportunities and information relevant to client needs and requirements.
